

Organised by Asian and Pacific Development Centre (APDC), Globalisation and SME Development is a collaboration with various organisations including the United Nations Development Programme and Expomal. The Conference is endorsed by 22 member countries of APDC and deals with 3 major agendas in economic integration, interactive networking and good governance of SMEs.