

Conducted with the key government officials from both Vietnam and Malaysia, the Vietnam trade mission is made up of prominent business people brought to Malaysia helming more than 100 projects from the real estate to banking sectors with the aim to seek various forms of cooperation.